

2026 Lo Award

The Greenwall Foundation

Instructions

Thank you for your interest in submitting a nomination for The Greenwall Foundation's Bernard Lo, MD Award in Bioethics (Lo Award). Nominations must be submitted by 11:59pm ET on Friday, March 20, 2026.

Please note: The online system considers 11:59:00 pm ET (not 11:59:59 pm ET) to be the submission deadline and will not accept submissions after that point. Be sure to submit your application on time, as we will not accept late applications that result from technical issues with the online portal.

Using this Form:

This form is made up of multiple sections. To view any section of the form, click on the arrow at the left of the section header bar. Only one section of the form can be viewed at a time. Viewing a new section automatically closes any other.

Required questions are marked by an asterisk (*). If, at any time, you need to save your answers and complete the nomination later, click on the SAVE APPLICATION button at the bottom of this form. A message will appear at the top of your screen indicating the nomination has been saved.

If you wish to save a PDF file of the questions in this form, use the QUESTION LIST button at the top of the page. If you wish to save a PDF file of your form responses, first save your nomination, then return to the form and click on the APPLICATION PACKET button, which will appear at the top of the form after you have saved the nomination.

To submit a completed nomination, click the SUBMIT APPLICATION button at the bottom of this form.

General:

Please ensure that all of the required documentation is included in your materials before submitting this nomination. Nominations that do not include all of these pieces will be considered incomplete and will not be reviewed by the Award Committee.

Amendments after the deadline will not be accepted, even in the case of technical issues. We recommend submitting as early as possible, in case such errors arise.

If you have any questions or need any assistance, please contact Kyle Ruempler (kruempler@greenwall.org).

Nomination documents

In the interest of fairness to all applicants, submitted materials should not exceed the stated page limits.

Letter of Nomination*

Please upload the letter of nomination, no longer than three (3) single-spaced pages, that specifically addresses the award criteria listed in the Request for Nominations and provides concrete illustrative examples. Among other things, the letter should address:

- How or why is this work bioethics?
- What divisions did this work seek to bridge, and by what means?
- What role did the nominee play in conceptualizing and implementing this work?
- What evidence demonstrates the nominee's success in bridging division and the impact of their work?
- What lessons were learned in bridging this division?
- What is the ongoing and lasting impact of the nominee's work?
- What is the relationship like among collaborators in this work and how did the nominee foster it?

This letter may include input or information from the nominee(s).

File Size Limit: 50 MB

Description/Evidence of Division at Issue*

Please upload document(s) or document excerpt(s) up to a five (5) page total maximum.

Explain and/or provide evidence of the relevant divide, for example, through academic articles or abstracts, op-eds, blog posts, press coverage, or a supplemental written description. This item is meant to illustrate the relevant division, not the nominee's work (which should be submitted in response to the next bulleted item)

File Size Limit: 100 MB

Nominee's Work to Bridge this Division*

Please upload document(s) or document excerpt(s) up to a 20-page total maximum that illustrate the nominee's work to bridge the relevant divide. This might include, for example, publications, interview transcripts, website excerpts, policies or other organizational statements, or descriptions of programs developed.

File Size Limit: 100 MB

Letter of Support*

Please upload one letter of support from a collaborator, no longer than three (3) single-spaced pages, that specifically addresses the award criteria listed in the Request for Nominations and provides concrete illustrative examples. If all collaborators are nominees for the Award, this letter may be submitted by a colleague with substantial knowledge of the collaborative relationship. Among other things, this letter should answer:

- What was your collaborative relationship with the nominee like?
- How does your relationship with the nominee compare to other collaborative relationships or interactions you have had with those who share the nominee's perspective?
- What divisions did this work seek to bridge, and by what means?
- What role did the nominee play in conceptualizing and implementing this work?
- What evidence demonstrates the nominee's success in bridging division and the impact of their work?
- What lessons were learned in bridging this division?
- What is the ongoing and lasting impact of the nominee's work?

File Size Limit: 50 MB

Nominee's Current CV(s)*

Upload the nominee's current CV(s), no more than five (5) single-spaced pages each.

If the nominee is an organization, please submit a comparable document or document excerpt that describes the organization such as promotional materials, an annual report, or webpage

File Size Limit: 50 MB

Nominations which do not include all of the pieces listed above will be considered incomplete and will not be reviewed by the Award Committee. Amendments after the deadline will not be accepted. The Lo Award Committee may reach out to letter-writers with follow-up questions.

As a reminder, at any time, you may save your answers and complete the nomination later by clicking on the SAVE APPLICATION button at the bottom of this form. A message will appear at the top of your screen indicating the nomination has been saved.
